

Alison John & Associates

AJA was established in 1998 and are a group of Disabled and Non-disabled Training Consultants. AJA believe in a world that is inclusive of all differences and this is what they aim to demonstrate through their work.

AJA offers a unique Training and Consultancy service tailored to your individual and organisational requirements. Please visit our website for further information on courses and workshops.

Our conferences are playful and participative, ensuring that delegates feel welcomed, informed and inspired! Please visit our website for further information.

Ally John, the founder of Alison John & Associates, is celebrating three decades of promoting equality and inclusion for disabled people.

Her international reputation as a Consultant and Trainer has led her to working with a diverse range of individuals and organisations in private, corporate and voluntary sectors'. She is a qualified Youth and Community worker, and holds a certificate in Training. She ran a community centre for ten years, working with children of all ages. She also worked as the Director of a National Voluntary organisation, promoting inclusion for young Disabled People into educational, community and play services. Ally also has personal experience of living in a 'disabling' world.

Doing
it Different!

T: +44 (0) 1633 663587
e-mail: office@alisonjohn.com
www: alisonjohn.com

Alison John & Associates Ltd

Supporting individuals and organisations to become more inclusive of Disabled People

Doing
it Different!

The mosaic of inclusion and diversity

Culture Changing Courses for service providers

Disability Awareness – into action. A one day course designed to introduce people to the Social Model of disability.

Challenging Disablism – a can do approach. How to support Disabled People and children in using your services.

Equality Act 2010 – 3 hour course an introduction to the new changes affecting Disabled people and their families. For anyone providing a service.

Tool-kits for Parents and Carers

5Ways – A two day course for Parents & Carers of Disabled Children to identify new ways of supporting and empowering Disabled Children.

Professional development training for Managers, Senior Play & Youth Workers, Senior Early Years practitioners

Play4All – A four day course for Managers of service's who want to develop inclusive practice.

Practitioners working with children & young people

Inclusive Play – A one day introductory course, for those wishing to include Disabled Children.

Scrappy Ideas – Two day course enabling practitioners to feel confident and gain competence in the creative process and making the most of scrap materials.

Doing it Different!

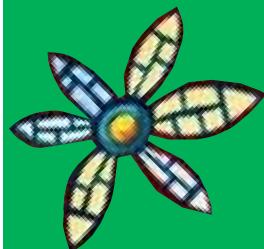

"The best seminar I've attended in a long time, really made me think about my practice"

"The way you teach is excellent. You show how all children need to play"

"it was fun, challenging and very practical, I learnt loads"

"I have never learned so much in a day as I have on this course. I finally understand what disability is"

"I wish we could put Ally's words in a bottle, so we could share her with our parents and other professionals. Inspirational!"

"The workshops were lively and extremely thought provoking. We got wonderful feedback from the delegates"

Playing Safe – A two day course dealing with child protection issues to safeguard children.

Play2gether – A one day course on how to provide environments and activities that encourage disabled and non-disabled children to play together.

HELP! I'm being challenged – A one day course supports practitioners to identifying behaviour strategies to enable all children and young people to be included.

Everyone Can Play Course – 12 hour course looking at developing an inclusive approach to childcare so Disabled Children are welcomed.

Principles into Practice – A one day course to support Early Years and Playwork practitioners in implementing the EYFS and Playwork Principles.

Out-Door/In-Door Play – A one day course full of games and creative activities; with ideas for making them accessible to all whilst making the most of what you've got in the outdoor/indoor environment.

Keynotes

Keynotes – can be provided on a number of different themes, they are fun, participative and challenging. No size of audience is too big.

Conferences - We provide the inspiration!

AJA are experienced in delivering stimulating and successful conferences. We can organise the whole event within an agreed budget or we can provide elements of the conference e.g. a keynote speech or your choice of workshops. See our website for ideas.